The Maryland Institute, at their last exhibition, awarded to us the First Premium for the best Grand Piano, and also the First Premium for the best Square Piano exhibited. It will be recollected that in 1848, our Piano also received the First Premium by the same Institute.

Such testimonials are not easily earned, and are not to be lightly regarded. We may therefore say that having taken the First Premium wherever our Instruments met with competition, we offer them to the public with a confidence we might not otherwise avow, guaranteeing all instruments made by us to give satisfaction, or they may be exchanged within six months from day of sale. The durability of our workmanship we further guarantee for five years. First Premium Grand and Square Pianos.

Mr. Robert Sears—Beat sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with auch interest and prodet; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, tike the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the Koending troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

LEVERETT'S LATIN LEXICON,

words, and the Ltymological index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transier to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and their common; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The retymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and ining these catalogues, it was found that the value and im-portance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far portance of the abditional words found in Leverett. so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in hiddle's Frenad. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommenda-tion superfluous; but attention to this new edition is predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

OWING to the lat revolutions and counter-revolutions among the in ions of Europe, which have followed each other in such q fick succession, and of which "the end is not set." the eaching periodicules of Great Britain have become investes with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disj. inted, and necessarily imperiest records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Wheever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in Lingland—Tory, Whig. and Ladical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Lilburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Keview" Liberal. The "North British Leview" ower its establishment. Liberal. The "North British I eview" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastica; novement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chaimers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two lieviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as herefolier issued.
